Your Educational Journey Starts Here

There are no prerequisite courses required before you can begin the ChFC® Program, but to use the designation, you are required to have three years of full-time, relevant business experience and a high school diploma or the equivalent. To receive and maintain the ChFC® designation, you must:

- Agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures
- Participate in the annual Professional Recertification Program (PRP) to maintain the designation

Your Roadmap to Success

Your learning journey doesn't have to begin or end with earning your ChFC® designation. The ChFC® can be pursued as a stand-alone designation or earned in combination with the CFP® certification or CLU®. Either way, it's an integral component of a lifelong learning journey with The American College of Financial Services.

Here are a few potential paths:

By earning your ChFC®, you're also able to complete The College's requirements for our CFP® Certification Education Program and sit for the CFP® exam. ChFC® completers can earn their CLU® with just three additional courses.
