

2026 NextGen Financial Services Professional Nomination Form

The NextGen Financial Services Professional Award is presented to professionals under the age of 40 with at least five years of experience in the financial services profession. We're looking for the next generation of leaders, who have shown outstanding drive and determination in their careers, along with a demonstrated desire to give back to their communities. Our ideal candidate is a rising professional who has consistently brought a high level of commitment, dedication, and integrity to their work. The awardee will be honored at the 2026 President's Dinner in Philadelphia, PA on November 12. Complete the form in its entirety to submit a candidate for consideration.

Nominee First and Last Name

Nominee Email

Nominee Phone

Nominee Job Title

Nominee Employer

Nominee Designation Name

What designations does the nominee have?

Is the nominee a volunteer for The American College of Financial Services?

- Yes
- Maybe
- No

Please provide the nominee's LinkedIn.

Provide the nominee's company website.

Provide the nominee's biography. Note: Text box word count is 20,000.

Provide the nominee's biography, as an attachment here instead (optional).

Drop files or click here to upload

How many years in financial services does the nominee have?

How long have you known the nominee?

How has the nominee made significant contributions to The College, their community, and the financial services industry through their involvement, leadership, and support?

Nominator First and Last Name

Nominator Designation Name

Nominator Job Title

Nominator Employer

Nominator Email

Nominator Phone Number

Please provide nominator LinkedIn profile.

Are there any additional comments or details you would like to be considered during the selection process? Contribute those here (optional).