ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT

This transfer of credit articulation agreement will partner Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services, satisfying course requirements for the Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®), Chartered Life Underwriter® (CLU®), and Retirement Income Certified Professional® (RICP®) designation programs.

The credit transfer policy for Huebner School courses permits a student who has completed comparable courses at a domestically accredited college or university or financial entity to apply for transfer of credit into certain Huebner School programs. Via this articulation agreement, Kansas State University graduates who have met the credit recognition requirements may transfer all credits from the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. approved program at Kansas State University into one or all of the designation programs named in this agreement. This agreement is contingent on shared learning objectives, as required by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc.

Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services wish to facilitate the transfer of students who complete training at Kansas State University to a designation program at The American College of Financial Services. This Agreement is intended to clarify the terms and conditions of transfer for students.

Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services hereby agree as follows:

Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services agree to cooperate by communicating with each other and with their common and respective publics concerning this established relationship.

To the extent permitted by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services agree to share data on student achievement for purposes of assessing program effectiveness. Any exchange by the parties of student record information protected by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act and implementing regulations ("FERPA") shall occur only in full compliance with FERPA, including, without limitation, committing the receiving party to limit the use of such information to the purposes for which the disclosure was made, and to impose such limits on any re-disclosure, and the parties agree to comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory provisions. The College's Privacy Policy will be enforced in all activities related to this agreement.

Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services agree to communicate any curriculum changes, Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. changes in approval status, or policies which affect the agreed-upon relationship, as soon as it is reasonably possible. Both parties reserve the right to amend or revise this agreement. These changes must be submitted in writing and signed by both parties.

Kansas State University and The American College of Financial Services further agree to communicate concerning the development of plans that might lead to future opportunities for cooperation between the two institutions. Responsibility for communication related to the agreement will be given to Scott Haar, Vice President, Business Development (scott.haar@TheAmericanCollege.Edu) and or his designee, the Registrar and Assistant Provost, Will Jacobs (Will.Jacobs@TheAmericanCollege.edu), and or his designee.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and all prior discussions, negotiations, and understandings, either oral or in writing, are hereby merged. This Agreement supersedes any previous Agreement. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement, which shall be in full force and effect.
