Empowering Those Who Serve

A NOTE FROM THE MANAGING DIRECTOR

Welcome to the American College Center for Military and Veterans Affairs! Our mission is to empower active duty, guard and reserve members, veterans, and their spouses as they transition back to the civilian workforce and into the financial services sector while also expanding their financial services knowledge.

Phil Easton
CMSgt, USAF (Ret.)

We do this by offering:

- ✔ Full scholarships
- ✔ Career services support
- ✔ Community building through:
 - Thought leadership webinars
 - Military Resource Groups
 - Military Consumer Financial Education Programs
 - Mentorship Program

We extend a special thank you to all of our donors whose contributions are making a real difference. With your continued support, we can empower those who serve our nation while also infusing the financial services industry with talented team members for the next generation.

Launch Your Next Career

While you've spent much of your military career building and reinforcing the skills to serve the greater good, you have also had to assess which of these skills would transfer to the civilian workforce.

There are a variety of career paths available to those with an education from The College:

- ✔ Financial Planner: address complex financial areas like income tax, estate, and retirement planning
- ✔ Insurance Agents and Adjusters: join a trillion-dollar industry that employs more than 3 million people nationally
- ✔ Wealth Manager: utilize goal-based planning frameworks to build tax-efficient portfolios
- ✔ Investment Advisor: advise on security selection including stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and exchange-traded funds or manage customized portfolios of securities
- ✔ Human Resources: assist with recruitment, workplace safety, employee relations, compensation planning, labor law compliance, and training
- ✔ Philanthropy Management: guide clients to integrate charitable planning within their overall financial and estate goals
- ✔ Executive Leadership: lead strategic decision-making in areas of marketing, management, operations, and finance

Meet Our Scholarship Recipients

“ I am especially excited about focusing on educating young military families. The importance of establishing long-term financial goals at a young age cannot be overstated, particularly in the lives of those who devote themselves and their families to the service of our nation. These families often face unique financial challenges, and I look forward to empowering them with the necessary knowledge and skills to secure their financial future. It is a privilege to be able to contribute back to a community that comprises individuals who sacrifice so much for our country. Thank you for this incredible opportunity.

“ After becoming a Wealth Management Certified Professional®, my vision is to create an organization to provide young active duty and transitioning military members affordable and practical financial planning advice. For me, a successful career in the financial services industry is not about how much money I make, but how much foundational wealth-building knowledge I can provide to improve the lives of those around me to set them up for financial success. Your assistance is an essential part in my journey to empower young military and transitioning members to be the best versions of themselves.
