CFP®
CERTIFICATION EDUCATION PROGRAM
Practical knowledge, proven results
WHY BECOME A CFP® PROFESSIONAL?

In today’s competitive financial planning landscape, you must stand out from the crowd and demonstrate your value to current and potential clients.

Becoming a CFP® professional gives you:

- Credibility of a highly-recognized financial planning credential
- Knowledge to grow your practice and expand your book of business
- Confidence to build long-lasting, trusted relationships with clients
- Support of a massive professional network and uniform code of conduct
- Growth potential of higher earnings and more clients
- Foundation to pursue deeper, more specialized financial education

Alumni with a designation or certification earn 51% more than advisors without one.¹

There are no prerequisite courses required before you begin our program other than a high school diploma or the equivalent; however, to receive and maintain the CFP® mark, you must:

- Successfully complete the seven required courses in our CFP® Certification Education Program
- Receive a Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university
- Pass the CFP® exam
- Complete either 6,000 hours of professional experience as a financial advisor OR 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience
- Complete Continuing Education (CE) credit requirements as directed by the CFP Board, as well as abide by their Code of Ethics

YOUR ROADMAP TO SUCCESS

Your learning journey doesn’t have to begin or end with earning your CFP® certification. Our seven-course CFP® Certification Education Program can fit into any life-long learning journey with The American College of Financial Services.

Here are a few potential paths:

If you’ve earned your WMCP® designation, take five (5) more courses to sit for your CFP® exam and add another course to earn your ChFC® designation. After you’ve earned your CFP® certification or your ChFC®, take three more courses to earn your CLU®.
